Next step

Applications may be lodged by one of the following methods:

www.qld.gov.au/bluecard

PO Box 12671, Brisbane George Street QLD 4003

Important information

You can withdraw your consent to screening at any time before a decision is made.

A registered teacher means a person registered as a teacher under the Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Act 2005.

A police officer means a person engaged by the Queensland Police Service as a police officer under the Police Service Administration Act 1990.

After you have submitted an application for an exemption card, your application details will be forwarded to the Queensland College of Teachers or the Queensland Police Service, where appropriate.

Confirmation of your status as a registered teacher or police officer will be sought from the relevant agency and whether there is a need to undertake further employment screening in relation to your application. If we are advised that further employment screening is required, a check of your police and disciplinary information will be undertaken and assessed to determine your eligibility to hold a working with children exemption.

If you have indicated that you are a registered teacher:

The Queensland College of Teachers may only advise that there is a need to undertake further employment screening where the Queensland College of Teachers is aware of any police information in relation to you.

If you have indicated that you are a police officer:

The Queensland Police Service may only advise that there is a need to undertake further employment screening where the Queensland Police Service is aware that you have been charged with an offence and the charge has not been finally dealt with.

No personal information about the specifics of a person's criminal history will be provided as part of this information exchange.

[‡]Conviction/convicted means a finding of guilt by a court, or the acceptance of a plea of guilty by a court, whether or not a conviction is recorded and regardless of when and where it occurred.

§Non-conviction charge means, whether a person was charged as an adult or a child, a charge: that has been withdrawn; that has been the subject of a nolle prosequi, a no true bill or a submission of no evidence to offer; that led to a conviction that was quashed on appeal; or upon which a person was acquitted or disposed of by a court otherwise than by way of conviction.

For more information about the blue card system and your obligations go to www.qld.gov.au/bluecard

*Disqualified person

It is an offence for a disqualified person to make an exemption card application.

A disqualified person is someone who:

- has been convicted[‡] of a disqualifying offence, which includes having sex with a child (irrespective of the type of relationship e.g. teenage boyfriend/girlfriend, unlawful carnal knowledge), other child-related sex or pornography offences, murder and other serious sexual or violent offences against an adult or child (irrespective of the penalty and regardless of when and where it occurred); or
- is the subject of:
 - o reporting obligations or an offender prohibition order under the *Child Protection (Offender Reporting and Offender Prohibition Order)*Act 2004; or
 - o a disqualification order issued by a court prohibiting them from applying for or holding a blue card; or
 - o a sexual offender order under the Dangerous Prisoners (Sexual Offenders) Act 2003; or
- is the respondent to an application for an offender prohibition order under the Child Protection (Offender Reporting and Offender Prohibition Order) Act 2004.

[‡]Conviction/convicted means a finding of guilt by a court, or the acceptance of a plea of guilty by a court, whether or not a conviction is recorded and regardless of when and where it occurred.

§Non-conviction charge means, whether a person was charged as an adult or a child, a charge: that has been withdrawn; that has been the subject of a nolle prosequi, a no true bill or a submission of no evidence to offer; that led to a conviction that was quashed on appeal; or upon which a person was acquitted or disposed of by a court otherwise than by way of conviction.

A disqualified person can apply to be declared eligible to apply for an exemption card in certain limited circumstances.

Further information about disqualified persons is available from www.qld.gov.au/bluecard or by contacting Blue Card Services on 07 3211 6999 or 1800 113 611.

[†]Negative notice

It is an offence for a negative notice holder to make an exemption card application.

A negative notice holder is someone who:

- has been issued a negative notice after applying for a blue/exemption card; or
- was issued a negative notice after their blue/exemption card was cancelled due to a change in police or disciplinary information.

A negative notice holder can only apply to cancel a negative notice if two years have passed since the negative notice was issued, or in other limited circumstances. This can be done by completing the Application to Cancel a Negative Notice form. For more information about the blue card system and your obligations go to www.qld.gov.au/bluecard.

Police information

A change in police information includes:

- any charge or conviction for an offence (conviction means a finding of guilt by a court, or the acceptance of a plea of guilty by a court, whether or not a conviction is recorded and regardless of when and where it occurred);
- the existence of police investigative information relating to allegations of serious child-related sexual offences, even if no charges were laid;
- where the person is the subject of an application for a disqualification order (which is an order that prohibits a person from holding or applying for a blue/exemption card);
- where the person is the respondent to an application for an offender prohibition order under the Child Protection (Offender Reporting and Offender Prohibition Order) Act 2004; or
- where the person becomes subject to reporting obligations or a child protection offender prohibition order under the Child Protection (Offender Reporting and Offender Prohibition Order) Act 2004; or a disqualification order; or a sexual offender order.

Restricted person

It is an offence to employ, or continue to employ, a restricted person in restricted employment.

A restricted person is someone who:

- · has been issued with a negative notice, or
- has a suspended blue card, or
- is a disqualified person, or
- has been charged with a disqualifying offence which has not been finalised.

Restricted employment

There are some exemptions which allow a person to work with children without a blue card, such as:

- volunteer parents,
- volunteers under the age of 18 years, or
- paid or unpaid staff who work in child-related employment for less than 7 days in a calendar year.

Restricted employment refers to the ability to rely on such exemptions to work without a blue card.

If an individual is a restricted person, the above exemptions do not apply and the individual cannot work with children. For more information go to www.qld.gov.au/bluecard.

Privacy notice

The Department of Justice and Attorney-General (DJAG) is collecting your personal information under the Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening) Act 2000 (WWC Act).

Your personal information is being collected for the purpose of verifying your identity, processing and assessing your application for a blue/exemption card, including your eligibility to work with children, contacting you to provide or obtain more information about your application and the blue/exemption card process, producing and issuing your blue/exemption card, administering the blue card system and meeting your obligations under the WWC Act.

DJAG will disclose your personal information to organisations you work for, or expect to work for, or provide services to, including information about whether you have a current application for or hold a current blue/exemption card, the outcome of this application which may include its withdrawal or negative notice and if your blue/exemption card is subsequently suspended or cancelled.

DJAG will also disclose your personal information to courts, law enforcement agencies, regulatory, governing, disciplinary or supervisory bodies, other Australian agencies that conduct screening of people who work with children or vulnerable people, other government agencies to verify your identity, including the Department of Transport and Main Roads (TMR), TMR and their card producer to produce your blue/exemption card, DJAG's information and communication technology service providers for the purpose of system support and development, authorised users of the home-based care register which is kept pursuant to the WWC Act and anyone you have agreed for DJAG to discuss your application with. TMR will provide the photograph they hold of you to their card producer and your photograph will be displayed on your blue/exemption card.

Your personal information may be transferred overseas where you access DJAG online services from outside Australia, where a service provider who provides services to DJAG has servers located outside Australia and in exceptional circumstances for card production purposes. Some email service providers store emails outside Australia. If yours does, then emails sent to you by DJAG will be stored outside Australia.

DJAG publishes confirmation about whether your blue card is valid.

DJAG may use electronic communication to provide information and to collect for research purposes.

DJAG manages your personal information in accordance with the WWC Act and the Information Privacy Act 2009 and will not disclose your personal information to other third parties except in accordance with the WWC Act and the Information Privacy Act or where otherwise required by law.

Human Rights

Section 58 of the Human Rights Act 2019 (Qld) requires public entities to act compatibly with human rights. Blue Card Services will give proper consideration to relevant human rights in its decision making.
